“Why early-historical radiocarbon dates downwind from the Mediterranean are too early”, Radiocarbon 44: 225–237 (2002).

- In subsection 3.1, the second bulleted point (citing Damon et al. [1996]) is incorrect. The bulleted point should be excised.

I would much appreciate being informed of other potential problems or errors. (Some investigators have claimed to have found other errors; in each such case of which I am aware, however, a considered examination showed that the claim was mistaken.)
